

New photograph of the Right Rev. Dr. William T. Manning, Bishop of New York, taken the morning after his election. The former rector of Trinity Church succeeds Bishop Charles Sumner Burch, who died suddenly. Three ballots were cast in the Diocesan Convention before Dr. Manning was chosen.
Copyright, Keystone View.

Airplane that crashed into the National Palace, Mexico City, injuring the Mexican aviator severely and breaking up an American-Mexican business convention. The fire department is shown trying to lower the wreckage.
Underwood & Underwood.

Former President Taft and Mrs. Taft home from Bermuda, a trip they called their "second honeymoon."
Photo, International.

The whaler Herman, caught in the ice far north, obtained much needed supplies by dog teams from the mainland. An unusual photograph showing one of the perils of an almost obsolete occupation.
Copyright, Kadel & Herbert.

Three iceboat enthusiasts about to take a spin on the frozen Shrewsbury River, New Jersey. Left to right: the Misses Helen Steele, Aldun Wentz and Adelaide Stevens. The last named is a daughter of Senator William A. Stevens.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

At right — Mrs. Sydney J. Colford, Jr., who was Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, born Cathleen Neilson. Her marriage recently came as a surprise to society.
Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Funeral of the former German Chancellor, von Bethmann-Hollweg of "scrap of paper" memory. At left is shown Prince Oskar of Prussia, sent by the ex-Kaiser to represent the Hohenzollerns; above is the coffin being taken from the village church to the family vault; at right is the coffin lying in state in the church at Hohenfinow with its local guard of honor.

